

Oxfordshire Direct Payment User Group

Are you using direct payments to pay for care services at home?

Do you manage direct payment money on someone's behalf?

Are you a parent managing a direct payment on behalf of your child?

Are you an organisation helping people use direct payments?

If you have answered yes to any of the questions above you may be interested in attending Oxfordshire's Direct Payment User Group meeting. This new support and network group can provide you with information and advice to help you in all areas of using direct payments.
